VIRGINIAN longwood college farmville, virginia 1971

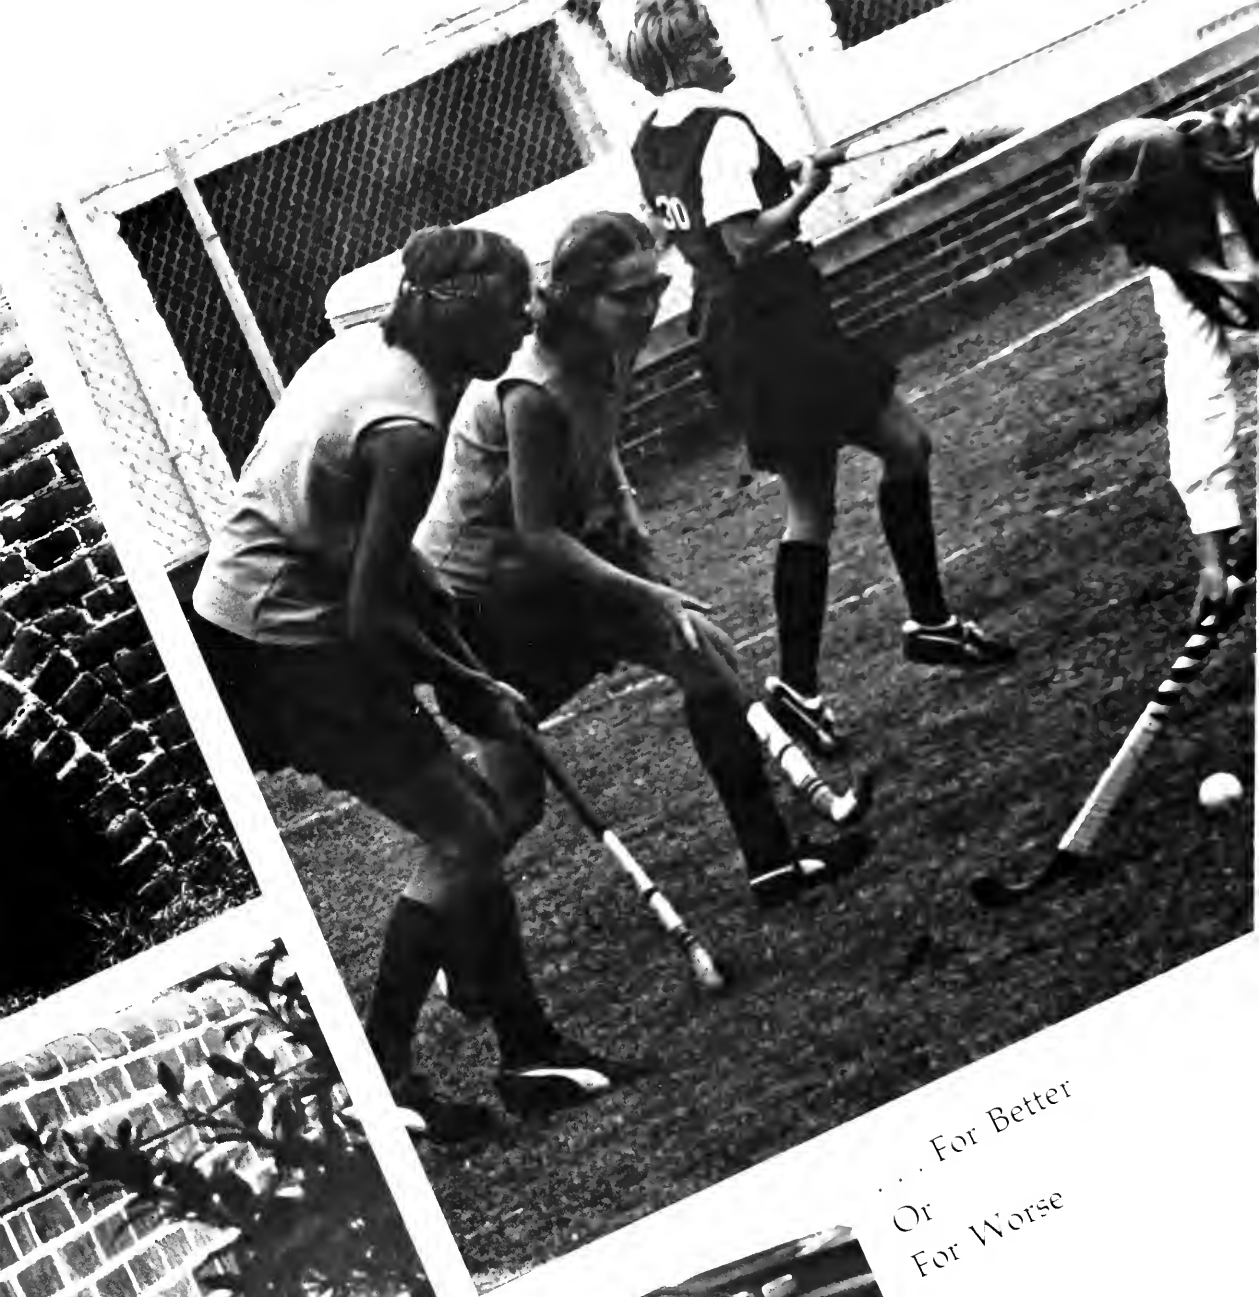

A Learning Experience . . .

. . . is what college is
all about.
We learn a lot of things
at Longwood
that we can never
pick up anywhere else,
things we remember.
Some of them we wish we'd never learned,
but we remember them anyway.
We find that learning is . . .

... For Better
Or
For Worse

"We Teach To Teach" — That's The System . . .

. . . that presents many of us
with certificates to teach after four years —
or three,
if you're anxious.
Education for the present and the future
has always been Longwoods chief concern,
and now it's ours, too.
So we come and study
and graduate
and teach.

Ever Wonder Who Needs It?

We've Got Class . . .

. . . after class to attend
to make the grades
to keep the average
to get a degree.
We fume because we have to go
to two thirds of the classes
we pay for.
And we fret all night
to catch up work
to overcome our absences.
And then we oversleep and . . .

... Cut The Class

Mail-Order Life . . .

Time, Newsweek, day-old newspapers,
studio cards, toothpaste samples and
crumbly shoe-boxed cookies
keep us in touch with what we were
before we came.
But nine months out of the year
are lived in Farmville,
where we walk, browse, purchase,
entertain, donate, and charge.
Belonging is . . .

... A Matter Of Mingling

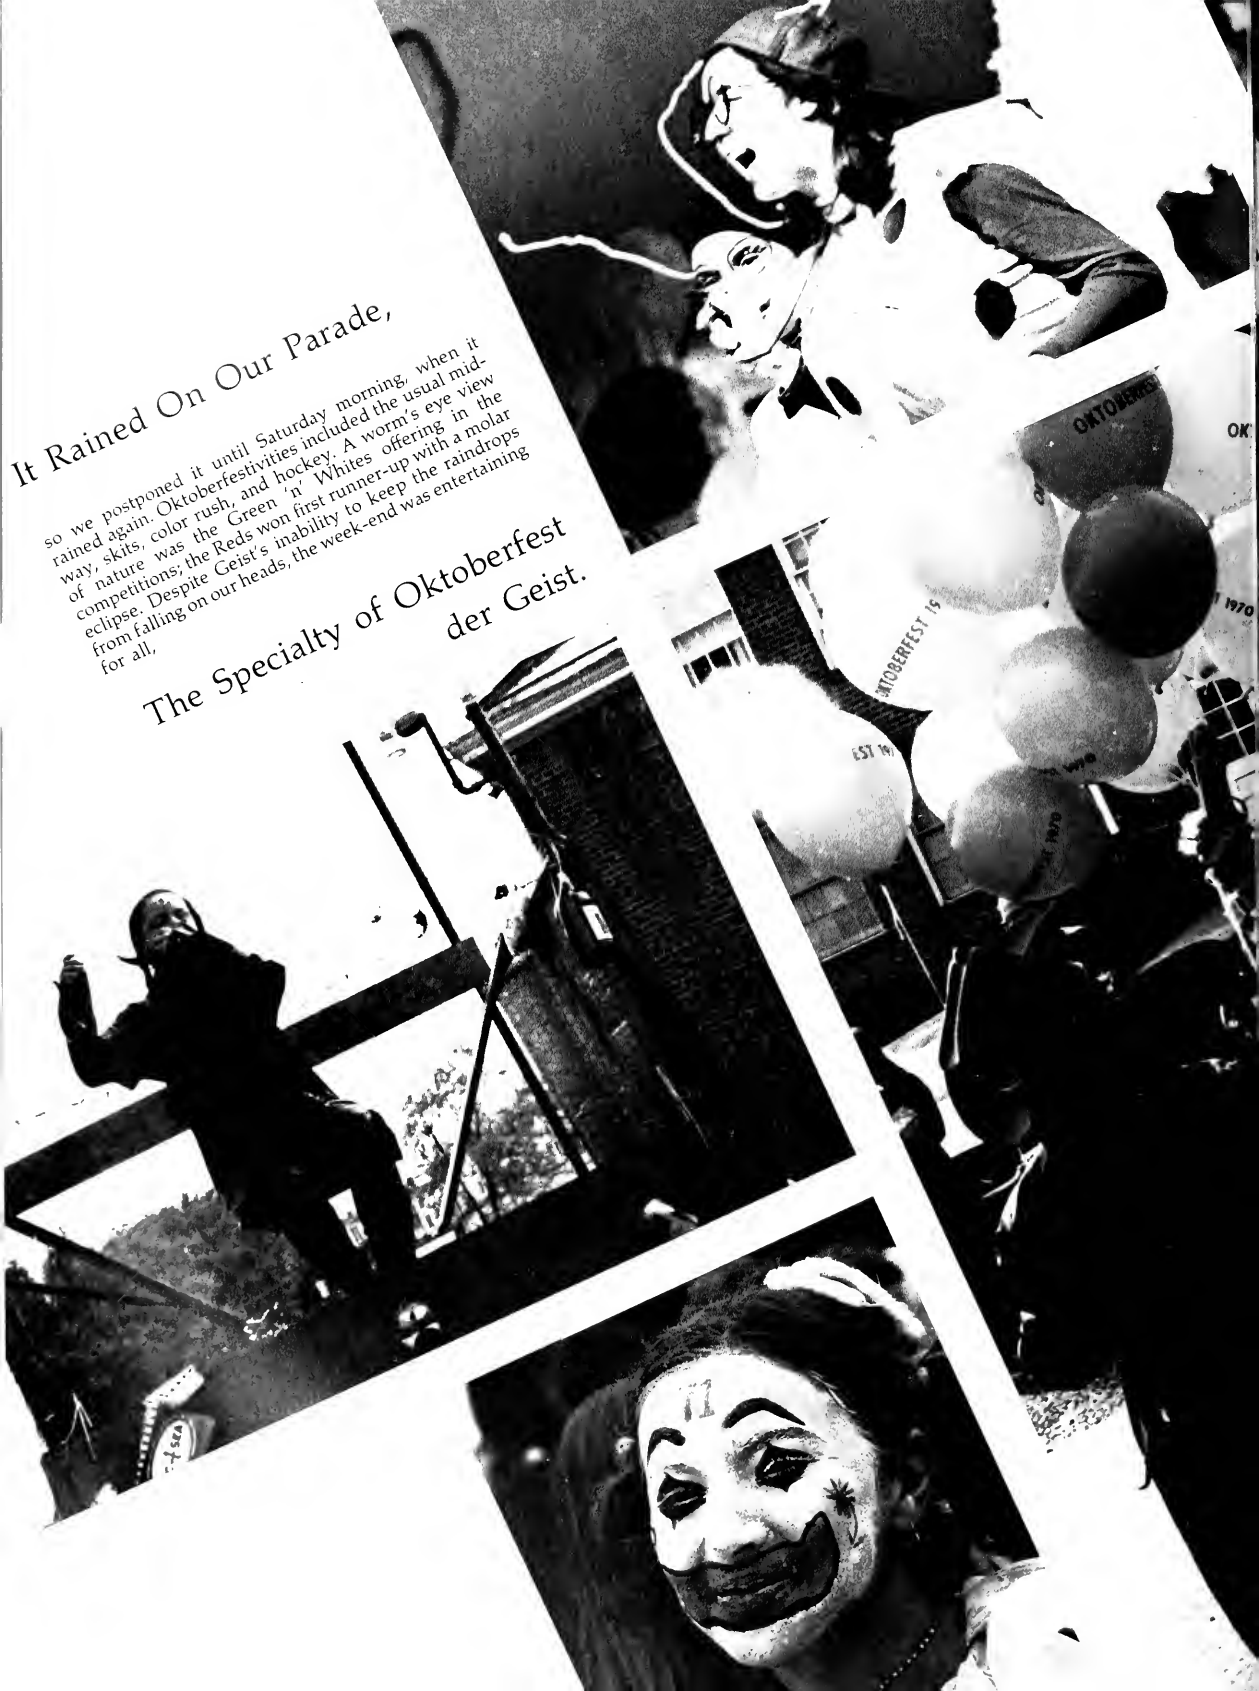

It Rained On Our Parade,

so we postponed it until Saturday morning, when it rained again. Oktoberfestivities included the usual mid-way, skits, color rush, and hockey. A worm's eye view of nature was the Green 'n' Whites offering in the competitions; the Reds won first runner-up with a molar eclipse. Despite Geist's inability to keep the raindrops from falling on our heads, the week-end was entertaining for all.

The Specialty of Oktoberfest der Geist.

From Every Direction . . .

. . . we get advice:
be more active, slow down, become free women,
act more feminine,
assert yourself, don't make a scene,
demonstrate, be yourself, change for the better,
loosen up, calm down,
don't believe what you hear,
why don't you listen, speak up, be quiet.

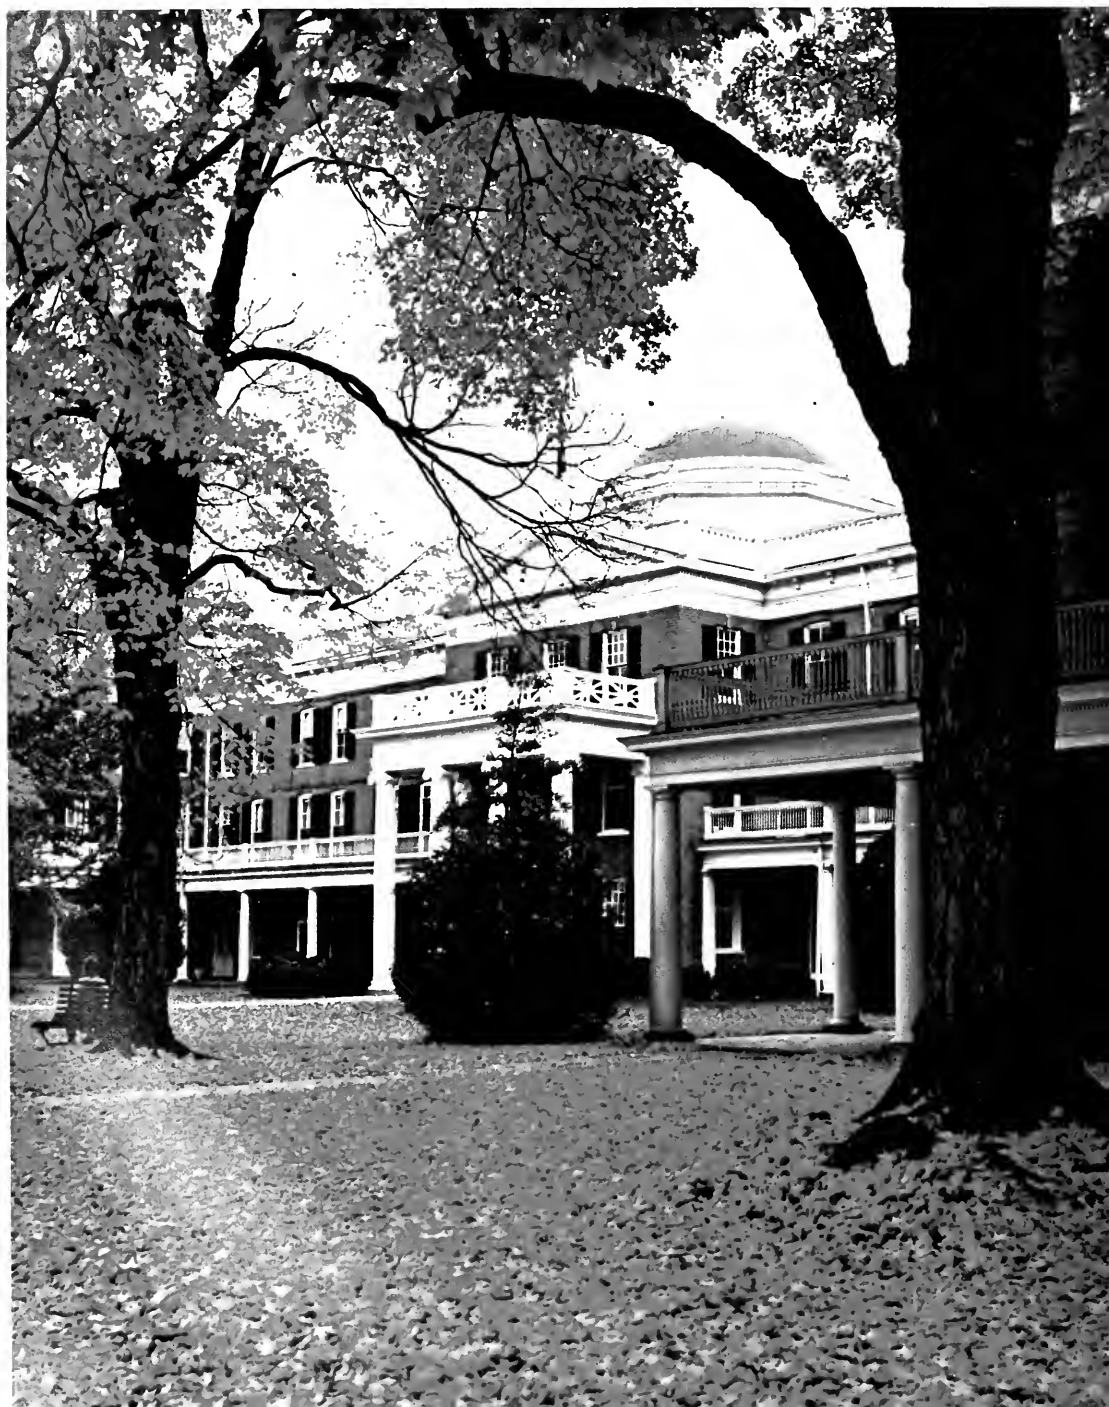

We take two steps back,
then three steps forward.
A learning experience?
We need more than just books and teachers,
and constantly . . .

. . . We Are Looking For Help.

Experience Is Also A Way Of Learning.
